Experience

Peter practised internationally for over 40 years as a dispute resolution lawyer, in particular in relation to trade and transport disputes, providing his advice and representation in court, arbitration and mediation proceedings.

He has provided for over 10 years his ADR services globally relating to cross-border commercial disputes and has acted as an arbitrator in ad hoc and administered arbitrations, including those conducted under the auspices of ACICA, HKIAC, ICC, LMAA, SCMA and SIAC, and pursuant to UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. He also acts as a mediator.

Peter is an arbitration panel member of arbitral institutions in Australia, China, Hong Kong, Singapore and the United Kingdom.

Teaching

He is a Tutor in international commercial arbitration on the Approved Faculty List of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and has taught international commercial arbitration and maritime law at universities in Australia and France.
